BRIEF MENTION.

— The Rosemont Hospital folk at Irving Hotel will close to-morrow.

— The board of the Literary Association was held at 9:30 a.m. today, and all committees of the association were called to order.

— Dr. E. Russell has been appointed as assistant to Dr. E. Russell, the superintendent of the Boys' Home at Bucktown, and has charge of the school for boys.

— On the afternoon of Christmas Day a poet will be read in the chapel of the Shriners Hospital, and at 4 p.m. the Christmas tree will be lighted.

— Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Warren, secretaries of the Saturday Evening Club, will be in charge of the decorations.

— The Young Men's Christian Association has received a large Christmas donation from the Young Women's Christian Association.

— Dr. E. Russell has been appointed as assistant to Dr. E. Russell, the superintendent of the Boys' Home at Bucktown, and has charge of the school for boys.

— On the afternoon of Christmas Day a poet will be read in the chapel of the Shriners Hospital, and at 4 p.m. the Christmas tree will be lighted.

— Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Warren, secretaries of the Saturday Evening Club, will be in charge of the decorations.

— The Young Men's Christian Association has received a large Christmas donation from the Young Women's Christian Association.

— Dr. E. Russell has been appointed as assistant to Dr. E. Russell, the superintendent of the Boys' Home at Bucktown, and has charge of the school for boys.

— On the afternoon of Christmas Day a poet will be read in the chapel of the Shriners Hospital, and at 4 p.m. the Christmas tree will be lighted.

— Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Warren, secretaries of the Saturday Evening Club, will be in charge of the decorations.

— The Young Men's Christian Association has received a large Christmas donation from the Young Women's Christian Association.

— Dr. E. Russell has been appointed as assistant to Dr. E. Russell, the superintendent of the Boys' Home at Bucktown, and has charge of the school for boys.

— On the afternoon of Christmas Day a poet will be read in the chapel of the Shriners Hospital, and at 4 p.m. the Christmas tree will be lighted.

— Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Warren, secretaries of the Saturday Evening Club, will be in charge of the decorations.

— The Young Men's Christian Association has received a large Christmas donation from the Young Women's Christian Association.

— Dr. E. Russell has been appointed as assistant to Dr. E. Russell, the superintendent of the Boys' Home at Bucktown, and has charge of the school for boys.

— On the afternoon of Christmas Day a poet will be read in the chapel of the Shriners Hospital, and at 4 p.m. the Christmas tree will be lighted.

— Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Warren, secretaries of the Saturday Evening Club, will be in charge of the decorations.

— The Young Men's Christian Association has received a large Christmas donation from the Young Women's Christian Association.

— Dr. E. Russell has been appointed as assistant to Dr. E. Russell, the superintendent of the Boys' Home at Bucktown, and has charge of the school for boys.

— On the afternoon of Christmas Day a poet will be read in the chapel of the Shriners Hospital, and at 4 p.m. the Christmas tree will be lighted.

— Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Warren, secretaries of the Saturday Evening Club, will be in charge of the decorations.

— The Young Men's Christian Association has received a large Christmas donation from the Young Women's Christian Association.

— Dr. E. Russell has been appointed as assistant to Dr. E. Russell, the superintendent of the Boys' Home at Bucktown, and has charge of the school for boys.

— On the afternoon of Christmas Day a poet will be read in the chapel of the Shriners Hospital, and at 4 p.m. the Christmas tree will be lighted.

— Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Warren, secretaries of the Saturday Evening Club, will be in charge of the decorations.

— The Young Men's Christian Association has received a large Christmas donation from the Young Women's Christian Association.

— Dr. E. Russell has been appointed as assistant to Dr. E. Russell, the superintendent of the Boys' Home at Bucktown, and has charge of the school for boys.

— On the afternoon of Christmas Day a poet will be read in the chapel of the Shriners Hospital, and at 4 p.m. the Christmas tree will be lighted.

— Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Warren, secretaries of the Saturday Evening Club, will be in charge of the decorations.

— The Young Men's Christian Association has received a large Christmas donation from the Young Women's Christian Association.

— Dr. E. Russell has been appointed as assistant to Dr. E. Russell, the superintendent of the Boys' Home at Bucktown, and has charge of the school for boys.

— On the afternoon of Christmas Day a poet will be read in the chapel of the Shriners Hospital, and at 4 p.m. the Christmas tree will be lighted.

— Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Warren, secretaries of the Saturday Evening Club, will be in charge of the decorations.

— The Young Men's Christian Association has received a large Christmas donation from the Young Women's Christian Association.

— Dr. E. Russell has been appointed as assistant to Dr. E. Russell, the superintendent of the Boys' Home at Bucktown, and has charge of the school for boys.

— On the afternoon of Christmas Day a poet will be read in the chapel of the Shriners Hospital, and at 4 p.m. the Christmas tree will be lighted.

— Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Warren, secretaries of the Saturday Evening Club, will be in charge of the decorations.

— The Young Men's Christian Association has received a large Christmas donation from the Young Women's Christian Association.

— Dr. E. Russell has been appointed as assistant to Dr. E. Russell, the superintendent of the Boys' Home at Bucktown, and has charge of the school for boys.

— On the afternoon of Christmas Day a poet will be read in the chapel of the Shriners Hospital, and at 4 p.m. the Christmas tree will be lighted.

— Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Warren, secretaries of the Saturday Evening Club, will be in charge of the decorations.

— The Young Men's Christian Association has received a large Christmas donation from the Young Women's Christian Association.

— Dr. E. Russell has been appointed as assistant to Dr. E. Russell, the superintendent of the Boys' Home at Bucktown, and has charge of the school for boys.

— On the afternoon of Christmas Day a poet will be read in the chapel of the Shriners Hospital, and at 4 p.m. the Christmas tree will be lighted.

— Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Warren, secretaries of the Saturday Evening Club, will be in charge of the decorations.

— The Young Men's Christian Association has received a large Christmas donation from the Young Women's Christian Association.

— Dr. E. Russell has been appointed as assistant to Dr. E. Russell, the superintendent of the Boys' Home at Bucktown, and has charge of the school for boys.

— On the afternoon of Christmas Day a poet will be read in the chapel of the Shriners Hospital, and at 4 p.m. the Christmas tree will be lighted.

— Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Warren, secretaries of the Saturday Evening Club, will be in charge of the decorations.

— The Young Men's Christian Association has received a large Christmas donation from the Young Women's Christian Association.

— Dr. E. Russell has been appointed as assistant to Dr. E. Russell, the superintendent of the Boys' Home at Bucktown, and has charge of the school for boys.

— On the afternoon of Christmas Day a poet will be read in the chapel of the Shriners Hospital, and at 4 p.m. the Christmas tree will be lighted.

— Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Warren, secretaries of the Saturday Evening Club, will be in charge of the decorations.

— The Young Men's Christian Association has received a large Christmas donation from the Young Women's Christian Association.

— Dr. E. Russell has been appointed as assistant to Dr. E. Russell, the superintendent of the Boys' Home at Bucktown, and has charge of the school for boys.

— On the afternoon of Christmas Day a poet will be read in the chapel of the Shriners Hospital, and at 4 p.m. the Christmas tree will be lighted.

— Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Warren, secretaries of the Saturday Evening Club, will be in charge of the decorations.

— The Young Men's Christian Association has received a large Christmas donation from the Young Women's Christian Association.

— Dr. E. Russell has been appointed as assistant to Dr. E. Russell, the superintendent of the Boys' Home at Bucktown, and has charge of the school for boys.

— On the afternoon of Christmas Day a poet will be read in the chapel of the Shriners Hospital, and at 4 p.m. the Christmas tree will be lighted.

— Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Warren, secretaries of the Saturday Evening Club, will be in charge of the decorations.

— The Young Men's Christian Association has received a large Christmas donation from the Young Women's Christian Association.

— Dr. E. Russell has been appointed as assistant to Dr. E. Russell, the superintendent of the Boys' Home at Bucktown, and has charge of the school for boys.

— On the afternoon of Christmas Day a poet will be read in the chapel of the Shriners Hospital, and at 4 p.m. the Christmas tree will be lighted.

— Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Warren, secretaries of the Saturday Evening Club, will be in charge of the decorations.

— The Young Men's Christian Association has received a large Christmas donation from the Young Women's Christian Association.

— Dr. E. Russell has been appointed as assistant to Dr. E. Russell, the superintendent of the Boys' Home at Bucktown, and has charge of the school for boys.

— On the afternoon of Christmas Day a poet will be read in the chapel of the Shriners Hospital, and at 4 p.m. the Christmas tree will be lighted.