NORTH ADTOWN

Sheriff Kean, of Duplin, brought two convicts to the penitentiary yesterday.

The shop windows are beginning to don gorgeous hues of holiday grace.

Raleigh is headquarters for good looking drummers for a few days past.

The next term of Wake criminal court meets on the first Monday in January, 1889.

Col. John W. Hinshaw returned yesterday from a business trip to the northern cities.

T. N. Jones & Co. sold a home full of tobacco yesterday which averaged $18.75 for everything, trash and green tips.

Dr. W. J. Hawkins is having a number of new cottages erected on the Tarboro road in the suburbs of the city.

The regular monthly meeting of the Relief Society of Christ Church will take place in the chapel today after morning service.

There are confined in the county jail twenty-two prisoners, two of whom are from Granville county, charged with capital crimes.

There will be a regular monthly business meeting of the P. R. S. club tonight at the usual place. All members are requested to be present.

The laughter in the gallery last night at Metropolitan Hall was at times unseasonably loud and boisterous and was very annoying to the people down stairs.

Mr. A. C. Anderson, of New York, and Mr. James E. Mills, of Sacramento, California, were reappointed commissioners of affiliates for North Carolina yesterday by the Governor.

Saturday, December 8, being the feast of Immaculate Conception, there will be two masses at the Church of the Sacred Heart. The first mass will be celebrated at 7:00 o’clock the second, during which there will be a sermon, at 9 o’clock.

The band of ladies with the Bull-Ellis Combination gave an open air concert yesterday from the balcony of the Tarboro. The spectators of fenale born blowers was a very novel and pleasing one and they made ral-tling music.

The Durham, Oxford and Keyville route via the Richmond and Danville to Richmond is doing a thriving traffic. The incoming train which arrives at 11 45 p.m., always brings in a large number of passengers. The line is said to be paying the company well.

There will be five eclipses in 1889, a total eclipse of the sun January 1, 1889, partly visible in North Carolina, the sun setting eclipsed. A partial eclipse of the moon January 16 h and 17h, between 10 o’clock p. m., and 2 o’clock a.m., visible in this State.

Mr. C. F. Crutchfield, who has been associated with the Lexington Dispatch since the first of September, has severed his connection with the paper in order to engage in business that will not be injurious to his health, which, he says, will not admit of his continuing in the newspaper business.
Notes about Town.

The News and Observer (Raleigh, North Carolina, Friday, December 07, 1888; Issue 140. (470 words)

Category: News

Gale Document Number: GT3005605617